

Shortly after the promulgation of the Union Election Commission Law in March, Burma's junta appointed a Union Election Commission of 18 members. The commission is led by former major-general Thein Soe, who has served as a military judge advocate-general and deputy chief justice of the Supreme Court. The Irrawaddy compiled brief profiles of several of the commission members and will be updating the list as further details arrive

No

Name

Position

Profile

Photo

1

Thein Soe

Chairman

A former major-general who served as a military judge advocate-general and later as deputy

2

Win Ko

Secretary

Joint Secretary of [redacted] Commission for Drafting State Constitution and Director General of [redacted] the [redacted]

3

N Zaw Naw

Member

A Kachin national and former district law officer in Myitkyina, capital of Kachin State. He a

4

Khin Maung Nu

Member

N/A

5

Saw Ba Hlaing

Member

N/A

[]

6

Dr. Ba Maung

Member

A former director-general [] of the Historical Research Department.

[]

7

Nyunt Tin

Member

N/A []

[]

8

Maung Tha Hla

Member

N/A

9

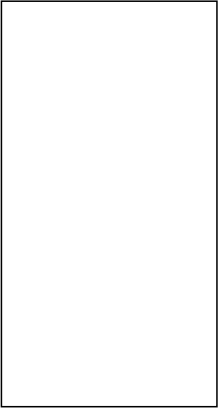

Dr. Sai Khan Hlaing

Member

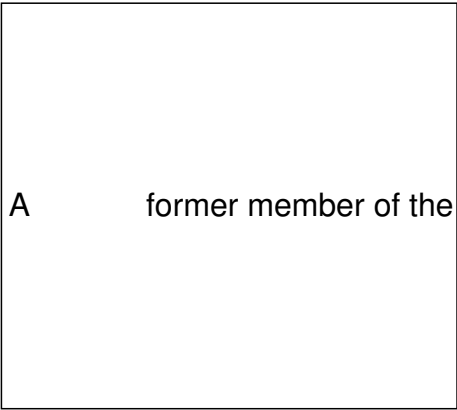

N/A

10

Member

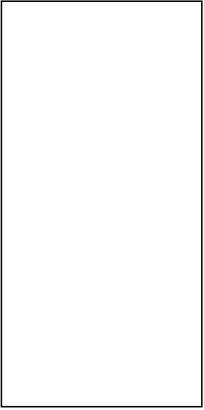

A

former member of the Civil Service Selection and Training Board and an ex-director of 11

Myint Naing

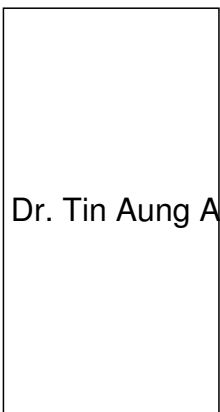

Member

A former Deputy Attorney

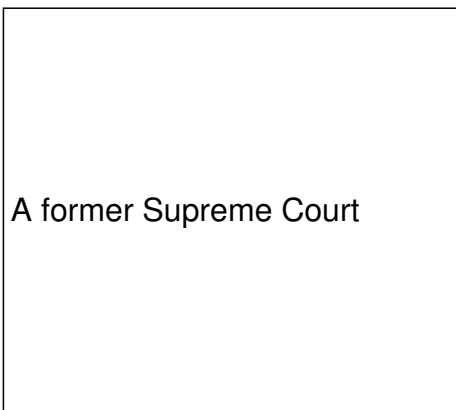

General.

12

Member

A former Supreme Court

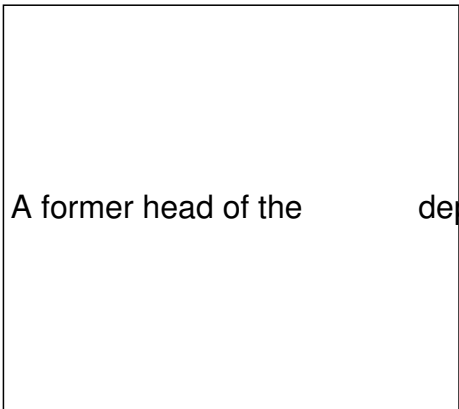

judge who also served on the constitution-drafting commission. He

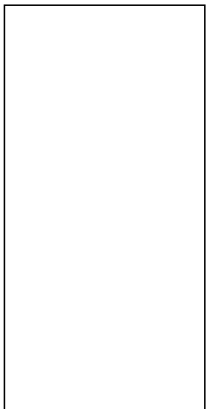

13

Dr. Myint Kyi

Member

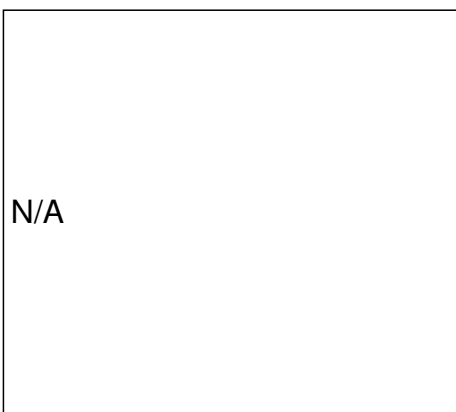

A former head of the department of international relations at Rangoon University. She also

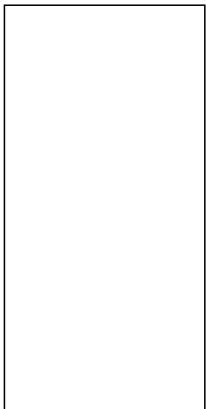

14

Member

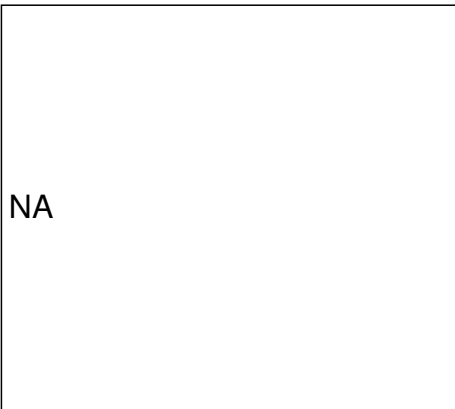

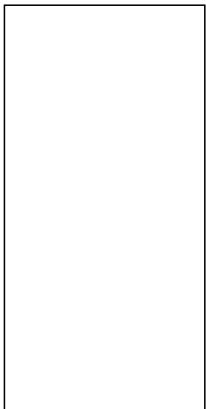

15

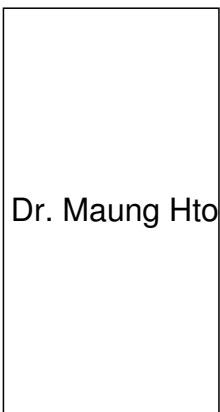

Tha Oo

Member

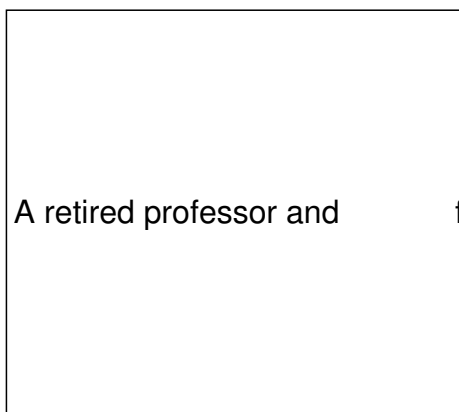

16

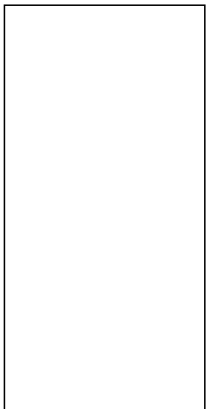

Dr. Maung Htoo

Member

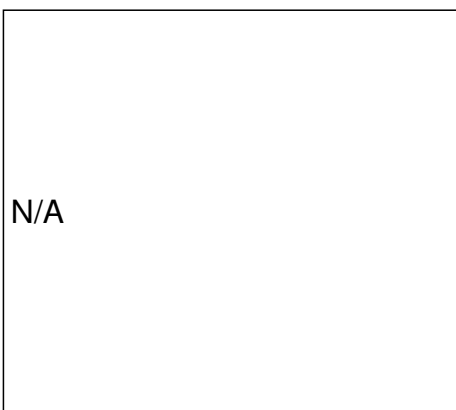

A retired professor and former rector of Monywa University, Sagaing Division.

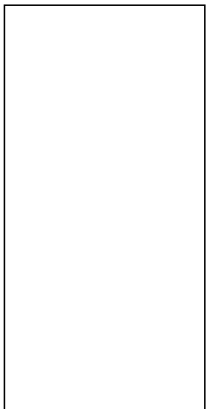

17

Tha Htay

Member

18

Win Kyi

Member

