Political Parties Registration Law (2/2010)

A person who forms a political party must be a Burmese citizen, a foreign registration card holder, people who have been granted citizenship, or people who hold a temporary identity card. —Chapter II, Article 4 (M)

A political party will be disbanded if it can not contest an election in at least three constituencies. —Chapter III, Article 12 (A/1)

People's, Nationalities, Region and State Parliament Electoral Laws

People who hold foreign registration cards, people who have been granted citizenship, foreigners, or [Burmese] people who receive citizenship in a foreign country may not be elected. —Chapter V, Article 10 (M)

English Translation by The Irrawaddy