

Political Parties Registration Law (2/2010)

A political party is one that believes in a “genuine disciplined multi-party democratic system” and one which the Election Commission allows to be created in accord with this law to implement its activities based on their political ideology. —Chapter I, Article 2/d

*English Translation by The Irrawaddy