Pyithu Hluttaw Electoral Law

The Election Commission will examine and announce the list of military representatives [in Parliament] submitted by the Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces, in accord with the number as prescribed [by the Constitution].—Chapter VIII, Article 31

When the Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces informs the Election Commission to replace any military representatives [in Parliament], the commission will announce the new list of representatives publicly. From the date of the announcement, the term of the replaced representatives will expire.—Chapter VIII, Article 33

English Translation by The Irrawaddy